

Getting Married in Central Telford Parish

Let's Get Started

First of all Congratulations!

So you want to get married and you are thinking of having your service in one of the Churches in Central Telford Parish (Holy Trinity, Dawley, St John's Lawley, St Leonard's Malinslee, St Mary's Ketley or the Chapel of Christ the King in Meeting Point House). The first thing we need to do is to ask a few questions:

Are you qualified to get married in Central Telford Parish?

The rules about "who" can get married "where" were changed towards the end of 2008 and it is now possible for people to get married in a Church where they have (or have had) a reasonable family connection. To make it easier, the Church Council has drawn up a Policy which lays out the situation clearly.

Have you been married before?

If you have been married before, it may be possible for you to have your wedding in the Church. As part of the Marriage Policy, the PCC looked at the circumstances which may make it possible. You can read about them in the Policy. However, if that is not possible, we would be delighted to have a "Service of Blessing after a Civil Marriage".

To find out if it may be possible for us to conduct your wedding, please see "Weddings in CTP – Our Wedding Policy". If you need to clarify this, please email the Team Rector tim@telfordchurch.co.uk

Which Church would you like to use?

A lot of people have already had some connection with a Church in the Parish and so know where they want to get married - and anyone in the Parish is entitled to marry at any of the Churches. If you are not sure which is the right one for you, why not come to a Sunday service and get the feel of the Church "in action"!

What date and time are you planning?

We will do our best to cater for whatever date and time you would like to book for your service, but it may not always be possible due to holidays and the availability of the people who are needed for your service.

OK – So What's Next?

If you have your answers to all of these questions then go back to the webpage and you will find will a link to "Wedding Enquiry Form".

If you fill this in and click "Send Wedding Enquiry" at the bottom, we will check everything is in order and get back to you as soon as possible to confirm you are ok to go ahead and book your wedding.
